December 2017

Sadly, Active Launceston is currently not offering any programs, events or services due to the existing public funding arrangements coming to an end.

However, the team at Healthy Tasmania Pty Ltd will not give up! They are continuing in their search to find ways for Active Launceston to be supported into the future so the project can continue to encourage and motivate this great community to live healthier and more active lives.

In the meantime, keep checking in here as Healthy Tasmania Pty Ltd will keep you up to date by voluntarily maintaining this website and the Active Launceston social media feeds as they continue to search for more funds.
